Panterpe:

Or, a pleasant

ALMANACK.

For the Year of our Lord, 1674.

And since the Worlds Creation 5623.

Being the second after Bissextile, or Leap-Year.

Herein you have the Place, Rising, and Setting of the Sun and Moon, the Southing of the Seven Stars, a Prediction of the Weather, and of the state of the World in Prose; with Predictions on every Month, in Hexastichons Poetically framed, with the Planets, Aspects, and Places.

The Second Part, gives notice of a Rare School for Young Gentlemen.

How to know whence Winds shall Blow.

Tables of the Lunar Aspects, and of Directions from them and the Moons place. A Katagraphy of the Eclipses, and Four Quarters of the Year; with Astrological Judgments on them. The Opinions of some of the Day of Judgment; The manner of the Motion of the Planets and fixed Stars, and how to see, and know them throughout the Year. Calculated particularly for the Honourable City of YORK, whose Longitude is 23 degrees, 30 minutes; Latitude, 54 deg. 20 min. but serving generally for any of his Majesties Dominions.

By Charles Atkinson, Minister of Kirkhemmerton, (6 Miles West of YORK,) and Practitioner.

Non mare transisset, pavi dus si nauta fuisset.
Had Seamen fearful been, other Lands they ne'r had seen.

London, Printed by Thomas Milbourn for the Company of Stationers, 1674.

The Supplication of the Author.

O Heavenly Lord subjected to whose Grace,
On Earth sits Nature, Fortune, Time & Place.
Unto thy Servant our dread-soveraign King,
Thy Prudence, Power, Plenty, Peace still bring.
His Royal Consort bless in vertuous Grace,
Which Envy, Fancy, Fate, can ne're deface.
To our Valiant Duke on Waves which charg'd rude
For ever appear in thy delivering wonder. (Thunder,
Thy Angel strong still by Prince Rupert stand:
So often offered by Sea and Land.
Our Holy Mother, all her Bishops bless;
That they still Love, Truth, Sanctity profess.
Each-where lift up the Good, the Bad descry:
Which set themselves 'gainst just Integrity.
Dukes, Earles, Lords, Knights, Esquires, Lawyers,
Judge, direct; with all the Royal Train. (Gentlemen,
Fence Lord of Hosts, our Force where-er'r it be:
Tradesmen, the Oppres'd, help in Necessitie.
Throughout the Christian world let it be told;
What God hath done for his, and did of old.

Resolutions on Nativities, things lost, stole, and all temporary and horary questions resolved by the Author. Also Physick for any that make use of him: likewise English, Latin, Greek or Hebrew, taught to any that imploy him, or to write fair. Also papers of direction written by him, shewing any that send to him, how they may gain the Hebrew tongue: these Papers he [illegible]ny at two shillings six pence.

A Table, shewing how long the Moon doth Rise or Set after it is full Sea at London Bridg, thereby to find her Rising after her full, and Setting after her change; Calculated for the Moons cutting the Ecliptick in the 15 degree of Aquarius.

The use of this Table is thus in Example, by the Kalender following, I find the Moon to be 21 dayes old the 16 of February; with this I enter the Table for Tydes, and over against the 21 day, I find 7 h 48 min. which I keep in memory; and so enter the table above: And because on the aforesaid 16*th. of February, the Moon is the* 18 deg. of Scorpio, under the title ☽ s rise N. East I find Scorpio, and then go on in an even angle, and finding not 29 I take 25 Deg. in the head of the 8*th Column of this table and under ho. min. against Scorpio, I further find* 5, 38 which added to the 7 ho. 48 min. which I kept in memory, makes 13. 26 which shews that the Moon Riseth 26 min after one a Clock in the Night the said 26*th. of* February.

And the like you must do to find the Moons setting under the Title ☽ s setting South-West. But observe, that that when the h. and mi. of full Sea, and these you find in this Table exceed the number of 12, that then you cast away 12, and retain that which remaineth for the time of the ☽ s rising or setting whether soever you desire to know. By the 5. Column of the Table for Tides before, knowing the age of the Moon, first, you shall not only find when it will be full Sea at Southampton, Portsmouth Isle of Wight, but also when the Moon will be full South. But observe, that all the increase, she cometh South in the evening following the Sun; but in the decrease, in the morning going before the Sun.

Now by any Sun dyal you may know the hour of the night, by adding to the time of the Moons being South, after, or substracting before. Thus you may not only know the time of full Sea, but also the Moons rising, setting, southing, shining; the time of night by her shadow on a dyal, by understanding the tables & rules aforesaid.

Cold and variable, over-castings, and wind, & troubled air, with fall of ill weather like to be in many places. Indifferent now, but think not winter is done, for sometimes it may seem as it were but beginning still. For cold and boistrous blasts are likely now to exceed any calms that may chance to happen. Troubled & chagable air, with cold and cloudy, stormy weather & wind to end the month.

Sol, Mercury, Jove, Venus, these agree;
Though Mars with Jove, be at great Enmity.
Volupia and Midas rule the Roast,
Pleasure and Profits, aimed at by most.
Th' Astræa Virgin is gone off the Stage;
And bloudy War makes some an Iron Age.

Winter-like Saturn now so near to Sol,
Makes much ill weather, whil'st together they roll,
Some sorts of Folk agree, kind, loving are,
When others do think of naught but Strife and War.
Less Towns may pray, that they may peace enjoy,
Since wasting War, to Flames turn'd famous Troy

Now Country-men be inclined pleasantly; rebate their labours, troubles, and expences.

Speech of forraign War, of suits in Law. Strife. Fightings, where things be unreconciled by Sea or Land. The fierce and proud be now mild, and humble. Much content in the affairs of Ireland. Multi invident bonum aliis, quo ipsi cavent. Though designes be now on Foot. But, Qui prius implorat Christum, feliciter orat. Who first to Christ doth pray, hopes for a happy day

For the growing Grass, if it be but moist enough; as I suppose there will be a mixture of showers in some places, as well as heat, if I be not mistaken in some dayes. Variable and wet likely now. Pleasant weather may be also now; over-castlings, if it hold fair, yet doubtful to the Months end.

Each Planet doth againſt another contend.
Sometimes 'tis freſh and clear; then Clouds or Rain,
As faigned Friends, could ſoon turn Foes again.
May the Tyndarian Twins right ſafely keep
Our Ships, when toſt with Troubles of the Deep.

Doubtful, if it hold fair from wet, it may be indifferent good weather for this time of the year, with wet, or Thunder, and variable, and changable dayes. Hot, if it hold fair, it may be good for this time of the year; if some wet and Thunder be not in some places. And now if I be not mistaken, a fit Season, yet oftentimes lowring, & gentle gales, and more fear, than fall of wet. Over-casting, if in some places no Thunder, the Month may end well.

The Infortunes meet upon our Longitude,
Yet may the Effects fall on the Wicked, Rude;
Disturbers of just Peace and Righteousness;
Till they their Faults confess, repent, redress.
Now things unto Maturity are grown,
Blest they that keep at first, yet hold their own.

Sad hatred twixt our Country-men, and some Forreigners. We are resolved to strike home. O sad what disturbance is like to be in some places, and blows ready to be strucken, old and new Grudges remembred. England's befriended, whilst others be affronted; one Friend must help another. Amiable Compliments, pleasant Imbraces French Merchants complemented. Terrible people strike heavily. Pax ibi servatur, custodia quo dominatur, Their Peace doth dure, where Watch is sure.

The Oppositions with this Month brings on,
Shews cruel Hate, Strife, much suspicion;
The Rich concord, the Poor do ill agree,
In this and other Months, take this from me;
Your Iron Spells, her Locks on Horses place,
Lest this Art miss, aright the Thief to trace.

As now from Taurus, Mars oppos'd the Sun.
Now bleſt be God, what e're they think, none dare,
Or can, as then againſt their King make War;
'Tis known to all that Englands ancient Law
Doth Subjects Rule, and Rebels Hang and Draw.

Some Reasons of the Winds from several Angles.

THE Denomination of ♄ in Lunation, Annual, or quarterly Revolution, causeth the E. winds of ♃, the N. of ♂, the W. or S. of ☉, according to the Sign he is in; but for the most of the E. of ♀, the S. of ☿, or he shall be joyned with others, of the ☉ and ☽, often the W. wind say some.

Again, Oriental Planets cause the E. winds; Austral the S. Occidental the W. Boreal the N. or the other winds may blow according to Planets Declination. Also the S or N. Latitude of the Moon, causeth Winds accordingly. Fiery Sigus, say some, cause N. Winds. Aiery ♎. Earthy E. Watery W. But others say ♈ ♐, and ♌, stir the N. W. Wind; ♉, ♍, and ♑, the ♎. E ♊, ♎, and ♒, the N. E ♋, ♏, and ♓ the S. W. The Sun but especially Moon, in any of these Signs, may move the S. Winds aforesaid; especially if strong. Also the Rising and Setting of fixed Stars, of the Nature of ♄, causeth E. Winds of ♃, N. Winds, &c.

Thus if you know where Winds will be,
The weather you may soon Fore-see.

The Use of this Table.

In the second Collumne, over-against the third day; I find ☌ is, which shews that in the first month of the Year, that is January, there is a ☌ of ♄, and the ☽. So I call that the first day, the fourth, the second day, and so the 31 day, the 29 day, & the first against the 30th. day But in Months which have not 31 days; I begin at the head again, after 30 is past. Thus reckon the days of the Month from any ☌. Four dayes after the ☌ is the ✶, the third day after the ✶, is the □, two days after that, the △, the 5th. day after the ☍, the fourth day after that, the △; Again, two days after the □, two days after ✶, and the 5 day after ☌ again. Thus do for any other, where ☌ in several months happen, at one and the same day of the month, there if the latter ☌ be left out in this Table, through want of space; yet it may be gathered from the ☌ and Aspects preceding. But for the exactness which cannot here be included; Buy the Ephemerides by Mr. John Gadbury.

BEing the Lord hath appointed the two great Lights to be Signs of things to come, as the Hebrew word לאותות in Gen. 1. 14. upon derivation, ſignifies, therefore we may conclude with the Maſters in this Science, Much is preſignified by Eclipſes. Of which one of the Moon will be viſible in our Horizon the 12 day of January 18. min. paſt 5. in the morning, then being the greateſt darkneſs in the Meridian of York. Though Antagoniſts to Aſtrology argue by this Syllogiſme, that the Luminary be more obſcured in the night, then in an Eclipſe; But the darkneſs of ☉ and ☾ by night, when under ground, work no ſtrange effects; Ergo Eclipſes non habent tot effectus, therefore Eclipſes have not ſuch Effects as Aſtrologers tell of. But this being God's appointment, that the cool of the night ſhould follow the warmth or heat of the day, that things might not waſte with heat, nor periſh with cold. According to the Doctrin of this Art I ſhall aſſirm, That this Eclipſe will cauſe drought and warmneſs to thoſe under ♌, with the ſudden Infirmity or Death of a great and eminent perſon under that Aſteriſm. An other Eclipſe of the ☾ will be the 8 of July 35. min. paſt 6 in the morning, which threatens Drought, and Barrenneſs, the death of a great perſon, diſcord, ſedition, ſcarcity of Fruit and Corn under ♍. Beſide what's before mention'd there is menaced to thoſe under ♌ death of Oxen and Sheep, danger to a high perſon, diſſention, the motion of a great Army, Fire and Sword, Theſts, Rapes, Abortions, ſharp Feavers, peſtilent ſickneſs, ſcarcity,

ſcarcity. But praiſed be God that we are not under this Aſteriſm, and the Lord deliver the good from theſe, every where.

Of the Spring.

THe welcome Spring inchoateth when המאור הגדול Hammaor Haggadol, i. e. Lux Major, the comfortable ☉ entreth into the firſt Punctum of the Ecliptick, which point croſſeth the Æquator, day and night being equaliz'd hereby; which ingreſs into ♈ happens the 10 day of March, 20 min. paſt 4 in the morning.

Now according to that of a Poet, Frigoribus pulſis nitidum ver æthera mu'cet, pleaſant weather quieteth the Firmament, by little and little expelling cold, Et nunc vireſcere incipiunt virgulta, & tempus anniſe vertere, and now tender ſprigs ſhoot forth and grow green, and the time of the year changeth. Behold ſaith St. Gregory, how ſuddenly as it were from dead and withered Wood, Videmus folia erumpere, fructus grandeſcere, do we ſee leaves burſt forth, fruit by degrees to wax great, and trees to be cloathed with a revived comlineſs; what is this but an imitation of mans Reſurrection? It is the ſaying of Zanardus, Multum juvat ad cognoſcendum mutatio aeris, &c, That it availeth much for the knowing of the mutation of the Air, and things to come in that year; to conſider which of the Planets obtaineth chief dominion and preheminence at the ☉ entrance into the firſt deg. of ♈, for the attaining of which principle all Aſtrologers agree, Neceſſarium eſſe figuram pro eo puncto erigere, that it is neceſſary to Erect a Figure for that point of time, and to grant the Lordſhip of the year to the Planet having moſt dignity and power in the Figure. Now at the time before mentioned the 4. deg. of the Aſterizm of ♒ ariſeth in the Eaſt, and the 7. deg. of ♐. is on the Mid-heaven. Having from theſe the places of the Luminaries, in the common way, ſumm'd the Planets Eſſential Dignities and Debilities, I reckon ☿ ♄ ♂ and ☉ to be moſt dignified in the Vernal Figure, and they not meeting with any conſiderable □ or ☍, during this quarter, but being ſtrong (as far as in this Figure can be term'd ſtrength) three of the Planets aforeſaid paſſing Signs and ♂ come into one of the Signs; under which is His Majeſties our Kings Dominions. If ere this the Dutch, have not humbled and abaſed themſelves ſo far to the Monarchs of England and France, as to make their Peace: they will find themſelves bereaved of their Ships and Marriners by Sea, of their Commanders and Soldiers by Land, being either cut off, or revolted from them. They will be weakned by loſſes and overthrows, by decay and loſs of Trade, by diſtractions, diviſions, tumults, taxations, and diſcontents; and yet God's anger is not turned away from them, but his hand is ſtretched out ſtill, even to their final overthrow, rooting out, ſubverſion and deſolation. ♃ in the 8 Houſe oppoſite to ♄ Retrograde in the 2. threatens any that ſhall be ſo mad as to be of their Confederacy, ſo far as to aſſiſt them, with terror, trouble, ſlaughter, effuſion of Blood. The ☾ weak warns ſome under ♍ to take heed they be not cheated by Vulgars or Women. And ♀ alſo, weak in the firſt, denotes ſickneſs, ſadneſs poverty. Stormy,

ſharp and cold weather laſts long this Spring, yet milder the latter part of it.

Of Summer.

THE pleaſant time of Summer begins when the glorious Sun is advanced to the higheſt Point of his Meridional Aſcention, making his greateſt Northern declination on the North ſide of the Æquator, not coming to the true Eaſt point till 19 min. after 7, nor to the Weſt till 41 min. after 4. This is to all thoſe that Inhabit (as we do) on the North-ſide the Æquinoctial Line, their longeſt artificial day which will be June the 11*th.* 4 min. paſt 7 in the fore-noon the Sun then entring the firſt ſcruple of the ſolſtitial Tropick of ♋.

Some derive Æſtas the Latin word for Summer, ab urendo, from ſcorching and burning; and indeed Decreſcunt celeres æſtivis ignibus amnes, we ſee the ſwift running Rivers decreaſe in water, through Summers fiery heat; but however the Lord watereth the Hills from his Chambers, and now cauſeth the graſs to grow for Cattle, and herbs for the ſervice of Man, that he may bring food out of the Earth. Pſal. 104. 14.

As in the Spring, ſo ſaith Zanardus, Idem dicimus de quartis anni inſpiciendis, &c. The ſame courſe muſt be held in looking into the quarters of the year; perfectly underſtanding always in Summer, Autumn, and Winter, which of the Planets is chief in thoſe ſeaſons, and to give judgment according to his Nature.

Therefore following this method at the time aforeſaid, the 9 deg. of ♌ is the Aſcendent, and the 17 deg. of ♈ culminates. ☉ is moſt powerful in this Figure. But though he be in ♋, tis not to be thought he abſolutly ſignifies thoſe late inſulting Sea-calves, the States of Holland; which conſiſt of a confuſed popular Anarchy; but rather our gracious Sovereign, part of whoſe Dominions lye under ♋. Indeed if ☉ were weak, or take in the near approaching platick □ of ♂ to ☉, and ſo it may ſignifie them: For as they have ſo may they ſtill, if unreconciled, ſee, that they have not known the things belonging to their peace, which hath cauſed their Towns to be encompaſſed and taken; nay, that they ſhall be beſieged in all their Gates until their high fenced Walls wherein they truſted come down. And that the Lord hath yet his ſeven times more, whereby to deſtroy and waſte their Countries: For if Alexandria forſake the ways of the Lord and he forſake it, though it have the Sea for its ditch, yet ſhall it be carried away Captive, Nahum 3. 8. But as Mr. Lilly well ſaid the laſt year, their judgments have not been laid to heart rightly, but miſapplyed by them. ♂ in the 9 Houſe in ♈ ſhows Travelling ſhall be dangerous by Sea and Land. Much diſſention or fighting in the Eaſtern parts; his ♂ with ♄ threatens this the more. Clouds may riſe in the Weſt, yet the Storm fall in the Eaſt. ♃ it the 4*th.* animates the careful Husbandman, with hopes of gain from his Labours. ☿ in the 11*th.* promiſeth love, ſociety gifts, profits. The ☾ in the 6*th.* ſhews gain to ſome by Servants, and ſmall Cattle, that ſome ſhall leave ill, turn to good. And ♀, in the 12*th.* weak, notes trouble and hate to Women. Coole, temperate, wet, moiſt, with ſome hot

and

and dry weather for moſt of this Quarter.

Of Harveſt.

THE fruitful Autumn begins when the golden Sun enters into the Æquinoctial Point of the Sign Libra, making his declination towards the Southern Tropick to the Antartick Pole, which happens this year the 12*th*. of September, 27 min. paſt 10 in the Night.

Now the Earth is diſrobed of her divitioſity, Trees deprived of their fructuoſity and frondoſity, having yielded their Pleromanthropy of ſupply to the need of man abundantly. Vegetables loſe their quondam vigour, and Creatures ſenſible againſt future ſtorms provide themſelves a ſhelter.

It is the ſaying of Guido Bonatus, Quando introitu Solis in Arietem, &c. when at the ☉ entrance into ♈, the Sign aſcending ſhall be a fixed Sign, that Revolution contains in it ſelf all the Four Quarters of the Year. Sed ſi aſcendere fuerit ſignum commune, &c. But if the Aſcendent be a common ſign that Revolution ſhall continue but half the year, and determine at the ☉ entrance into ♎, when it behoveth the Aſtrologian again to reiterate the Figure of the Revolution to ſerve for the ſecond half year.

Now though in the Vernal Figure a fixed Sign Aſcended, ſo that according to Haly and the Author aforeſaid, one Figure might have ſerved for the whole year, viz. that in the Spring; yet that I may not contradict the Author I quoted in the two foregoing quarters, he agreeing with divers Ancient and Modern Aſtrologers; Ptolomy himſelf not diſſenting from Schemes for the four quarters; therefore I shall observe that the time before mentioned, in York Latitude, the 11 deg. of ♋ is the Horoscope, and the 5 of ♓ the Medium Cœli. In this Figure ♀ hath chief Essential force, and is drawing to a ☌ with ☿, but still in ☽ to ♄; whence may be noted, that if any under ♎ should be in real Hostility against England, or her Associates, they shall at this time be but in a bad condition. Ill weather, sickness, scarcity, unhappiness, thefts, robberies, rapines and discords seem to threaten them. Though they may expect the contrary, if at peace with us, and our friends. For then her being N. by W. in the 5, may further promise them mirth by Women, singing, dancing, children, feasting, and by apparel. The ☽ E by S. in the 12*th.* notes instability in every thing, quarrels or War, some under ♋ may fear this. ♄ S. by E. then in ♈, shows men under ♈ shall have their desires and hopes, be successful in their Journeys and removes, and shall be merry. ☿ weak in the 4*th.* N. notes discord, and jars in words twixt man and man, anger, sadness, troubles to persons signified by him. ☉ weak N. in the 4*th.* denotes hurt to Gardens and vegetables, danger of the degrading of Commanders under ♎. ♂ S. by E. weak, more debilitated then dignified in the same House with ♄, shows hatred, want of society, compassion and pitty; temperate, indifferent moist, wet and stormy weather this quarter.

Of Winter.

HOary, naked, and wasting Winter begins, when the glimmering ☉ is in his greatest South declination clination from the Æquinoctial line, rising S. E. and setting S. W. being so far removed from the Zenith or Vertical point, that there is Solis ſtatio, a ſeeming of the ☉ to ſtand ſtill, the day Star ſenſibly perceived either to lengthen or ſhorten for certain days together, which entrance of the ☉ into the Southern Tropick Circle of Cold, dry, earthy ♑ is upon dec. the 11*th.* 30. m. paſt 10 before noon. This Hyemal or Brumal Solſtice we may find ſometime named Bruma in Latin, a Brevitate dierum, from the ſhortneſs of days then; and the further North the ſhorter now days be, inſomuch that at Belſound in Greenland, at the Frozen Sea, and Artick Pole, one part of the year is continual Night, and the other is continual Day. Some eminent and ancient Aſtrologers ſay, when at the ☉ entrance into ♈, Fuerit aſcendens ſignum mobile, the Sign aſcending ſhall be a moveable Sign, that Revolution will hold but till the ☉ ingreſs into ♋, and then it is requiſite to erect Schemes for every quarter of the year.

But though the Aſcendent this Spring had not been as it was, a fixed but a moveable Sign, yet cuſtome, order, Poetry, yea Aſtronomy, and Aſtrology, according to divers make it the compleateſt and moſt rational way to frame a quarterly Figure, this being the way uſed by the great Ephemeridiſt Argol. Therefore in this Method at the time before mentioned, the 7. deg. of ♒ riſeth in the firſt Houſe, and the 9 deg. of ♐ is South in the 10. Though Bonatus and Learned ancient Aſtrologers have many ways of finding Lordſhip in Figures, yet with the expert of our time I ſhall uſe the way I have done before, ♄ therefore E. by N. in the 2. hath chief dominion in this Schem, and ſhews folks inclined to be honoured by Neighbours; abound and be ſucceſsful in ſtore and wealth: thrive in labour and trading. This may animate our Countrymen under ♈. ♄ hath been long Retrograde, but now become direct. The ☾ out of ♎ in ♐ to ♄ is ſo weak, that either thoſe under ♎ will have no force or power to reſiſt, or diſturb any under ♈, or they will be at peace with them. Poſſunt enim homines ſemper ceſare a bello, ſaltem offenſivo. ♀ ſtrong in the 1. ſhews ſtrength and health, joy, and gladneſs, neat living to thoſe under the Signs ſhe paſſeth. ♃ not very weak, ſhews good to people by Superiours, Juſtice, Happineſs, to thoſe under ♃, for he is S. in the 10*th.* But ♂, in the 2. E. by N. with ♄ weak, notes, Theſts, Roberies, Rapines, Cheating, Deceit, Want, Taxations. Yet ☿ though weak in the 11*th. Of the End of the World.

Rabby Elias, Rabby Iſaac, and St. Auguſtin heretofore as Melanction of late have ſeemed to aſſert, Sex millia Mundus erit, & poſtea deſtructio, That the World ſhould laſt Six thouſand years before its deſtruction. Two thouſand years before the Law, Two thouſand years under the Law, and Two thouſand under Chriſt. Though Bracanza- nus writes, that because of the Conversion of the Indians, the many Eclipses, Blazing Stars, Earthquakes, Pestilences, Wars, and Seditions, defection from the true Faith, &c. and coldness of Charity, Instare Judicium, &c. The End of the World comes in 1656.

But Picus Mirandula said, not till 1728. Brightman and Napier say, betwixt 1688, and 1700. But as Learned Prideaux said, These are but uncertain curiosities. Indeed it shall be as in the days of Noah, Men shall Eat, Drink, Marry, Buy, and Sell, knowing nothing, till that day suddenly overtake them. But peradventure China, and many other places yet unknown, must first be Converted; And the Holy Fathers thought, that there shall be greater Signs before that day, then yet we have seen.

And we know our blessed Saviour saith, Of that Day and Hour knoweth no man, Οὐδὲ οἱ ἄγγελοι τῶν οὐρανῶν, no not the Angels of Heaven, Mat. 24. 36. Sed tanquam fur in nocte venit, but it shall come as a Thief in the Night. Therefore we may conclude with Zanardus, in his Book Universi Coelestis, pag. 40. That it is safest to say, the Judgments of men herein are but frivolous and ridiculous; Nam quod sub silentio, suo judicio Deus posuit inutile labore investigamus: For what God hath placed in silence, and in his own secret Judgment, it is labour in vain to search into. Though the World were Six days in Creating, yet this doth not absolutly affirm to us, that the World shall continue just Six thousand years: Let us prepare, lest Death which is the End of this World to all that die, catch us unprovided; or that day come suddenly on all, as none knows how soon it may.

The

The Scituation of the Stars, and the manner of their Motion.

THat the multiplicity of the glorious Stars might not confound the beholders, by their irregular Scituation; the Ancients conjoyned numbers of them together, comparing them by name, nature, and form, to some thing on Earth, as the Bear, the Ship, &c. These they called Constellations, of which they observed 48. 21 on the North-side the Equinoctial, 15 on the South, and 12 on the Zodiack it self: These with the 120 exempted out of all Constellations made up 1025, which were all that ever were reckon'd of Anciently. I have not room to speak here, what vulgarly and Poetically is written of Ursa Minor and Major, the 32 Stars of the Serpent, the 11 Stars of the Cephei, &c. which were taken to be betwixt the Artick Pole and the Zodiack; Nor to write further of the 12 Zodiacal Constellations, then to let the ignorant know, that when any of the 12 Signs arise in the East, the Sign that is in direct ☍ to it sets in the West: as when the 1 deg. of ♌ riseth, the 1 deg. of ♒ setteth; as also that the fixed Stars are so called, because they are alligated to their proper Orb the 8 Sphear, and so are carried round in one form, and have all one motion, never separating one from another, but keep the same order and distance now, that they did at their first Creation; not one Star moving of it self, but are all carried from E. to W. and so into the East again, in the space of 24 hours, and that by the force of the 10*th*. Sphere, called the Primum Mobile;

Mobile; and hereby all the other Orbs of the Planets in the ſame time, be violently turned about; yet as the Planets, ſo the fixed Stars have a contrary Motion to the firſt mover, which is from Weſt into the Eaſt, but ſo ſlow that it cannot be perceived in a little time, moving but one deg. in an 100 years, and ſo finiſhing their full Revolution but in 36000. yet more exactly ſome ſay, in 25443. years. No fixed Star is there, but it is far greater then the Earth, except 19 of the 6th. Magnitude, but their vaſt Magnitudes, diſtances, ſwift Motions, which the Primum Mobile carries them be admirable.

The Place and appearance of ſome fixed Stars, and the Planets ſhown ſo plainly, that any who will may obſerve their Motion in every Month.
